Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Shaker Sermons; Scripto-Rational: Containing the Substance of Shaker Theology, Together With Replies and Criticisms This Book of Sermons scarcely needs a preface. The author and orator began life among the Shakers when less than one year old, and may therefore be supposed to be excellent authority upon Shaker theology. He was born in Logan county, Kentucky, on the south side of Gasper river, on the 28th day of April, 1807. For fifteen years his home was in a log cabin, in which also, from four to thirteen years of age, during the winter months only, he received his entire instruction in letters. This is the first book ever written for publication, by an individual whose whole life has been consecratedly devoted to and guided by the principles of Shakerism; and the tenor of the discourses denotes words fitly spoken, like apples of gold in pictures of silver. The sermons embrace nearly or quite every feature of Shaker polity, and will be highly appreciated by very many as a book of reference upon the subject of Shakerism. That the author is a most excellent representation of what Shaker principles can do for a man, we are only proud to vouch therefor; and we feel a certainty that in the perusal of the following pages by the seeker after truth, the reader will feel the hallowed influences of one who has been with the Christ, and who walks and lives with the Christ; and will also realize that he is one of the Saviours to come upon mount Zion, to judge the mount of Esau. To the rearing of such individuals as Saviours is Shakerism devoted. That...
