Createspace, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 234 x 155 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Reviews Myeerah.is expertly placed to interact with several historical personages and provides an engaging account of early Canadian history.Her.compelling story and character arc stand at the heart of the novel.Exquisite historical detail.Excellent novel. -J. A. Beard, Good Book Alert I read Cartier s Ring cover to cover.-right through the night, in fact-for the simple reason that I couldn t put it down. Pearson Moore has given us lasting love, bloody war and a clash of cultures set on the high seas. and in the incomprehensibly vast wilderness of 17th century Canada.and leaves his readers dying to know what happens next.Cartier s Ring is a superbly researched, marvelously written book, and I can t wait for the sequel. -Paula Cohen, bestselling author of Gramercy Park Myeerah is the real heroine, a young girl.who s forced to grow up very quickly.I m not ashamed to say that a few times I had a lump in my throat as I read. Moore has brought to life a period of history.I could almost feel.the camps and forests and ships. The battle of the characters became my battle, too. From the first page to the last, the story is gripping. A tale of love, of family, of honor and of power, it s fitting tribute to the birth of a nation. -Barbara Elsborg, bestselling author of Strangers She is healer, hunter, warrior. Her strength will inspire generations. Her courage will found a nation. Experience history as never before. See the story of North America through the eyes of the woman who lived and breathed it: Myeerah of Hawk Clan, Matriarch to a nation. About the Novel: Only men have dreams such as this,...
