This year is also the centenary of Hamlin, Lincoln s fellow standard-bearer, trusted friend and counselor. It is proper that at this meeting the centennial of the birth of Hamlin, a few months hence, should be anticipated and our evening devoted to loving memory of him and to the recollection of his many and high claims to good fame and enduring honor among men. It is especially fitting that the Military Order of the Loyal Legion of the United States should be mindful of this great friend and supporter of the Union, since the chief of its objects is to cherish the associations and memories of the war waged in defence of the unity and indivisibility of the Republic. and because Hamlin was elected a companion of the Order by the Mother Commandery at Philadelphia under that section of the constitution which made eligible to membership those gentlemen who in civil life, during the Rebellion, were especially distinguished for conspicuous and consistent loyalty to the National Government, and were active and eminent in maintaining the supremacy of the same. It is the high privilege of the Commandery of Maine to initiate the memorial exercises in honor of the centenary of Hamlin, since he was a companion of this Commandery by...
