Reviews

This publication will be worth purchasing. It really is written in simple terms instead of difficult to understand. It has been designed in an exceptionally simple way and is particularly only right after I finished reading this ebook in which basically modified me, altered the way I believe.

Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Christians Annual, 1899, Vol. 3 The Christians. Do you ask, Who are the people whom this Annual represents? To answer briefly, they are - 1. A people who call themselves simply Christians. They do not arrogate the title to themselves. To that name they accord an equal right to all who accept Christ as Savior and Leader. They cannot, however, accept a human title for a church of which Christ is Founder and Head - a title different from that divinely given to his followers first in Antioch. They cannot accept a name whose very enunciation is suggestive of human headship and of party divisions in the one family of Christ. 2. They hold to the union of all believers in the services and sacraments of the church, and in all religious labor for the conversion and salvation of man. They have ever averred that Christian brotherhood is not a kinship of ecclesiastical creation; that the oneness for which Christ prayed is not a unity of opinion, but of spirit; a union not possible to clashing creeds: a union of Pentecostal creation; a fellowship that follows the irresistible attraction of spiritual affinities. They foster friendship and fellowship with all sister denominations, but have no faith in a legislated union of Christ s followers. They believe that genuine unity is of Christian love, and is therefore the logical and normal relation of all who are Spirit-born into the visible church of Christ. They humbly hope that both by teaching and example they may bear some part in cementing a universal brotherhood and cooperation in which the church of Christ may stand before an amazed and...
